Sr. Software Engineer

DUTIES: Identify, design, develop, implement, and revise software applications to meet business needs. Support software applications and associated operating systems. Program, analyze and write specifications. Devise solutions to system problems. Develop and test applications; make revisions to improve functionality. Develop and analyze the effectiveness of new applications and test procedures. Write and edit reports to provide recommendations, conclusions and other data. Perform related responsibilities as required.

SCHEDULE: 40 hours per week, Monday through Friday, 8:00 AM to 5:00 PM

SALARY: $57,200 - $83,910/year

LOCATION: Emory University, 540 Asbury Circle, Atlanta, GA 30322

REQUIREMENTS: Bachelor's degree (or foreign equivalent degree) in computer science, math or related engineering field and 2 years of related experience in programming and software systems. Also requires demonstrated proficiency in the following (which may have been obtained concurrently): UI/UX design; Linux; Java Script; Ruby on Rails; Python. Any suitable combination of education, training or experience is acceptable.

CONTACT: Send resume to Nydia Charles-Huggins, Emory University, 1784 North Decatur Road, North Decatur Building, Suite 200, Atlanta, GA 30322.

---

Emory University is an equal employment opportunity and affirmative action employer. Women, minorities, people with disabilities and veterans are strongly encouraged to apply.